2018 Levels and Benefits

The Smart Energy Initiative holds a number of seminars and workshops designed to increase awareness of local and domestic energy issues for both the industry and non-energy industry businesses. Topics cover the full breadth of this diverse industry, and always include solutions employing the region's energy companies and their highly-trained workforce. These events attract audiences composed of business owners/leaders, industry advocates, elected officials, community leaders. Each event has available sponsorships that offer exposure and benefits. Funds from sponsorships are used to offset the costs of refreshments, facilities, marketing costs, and Smart Energy Initiative staff time used to develop and coordinate events.
